7 I have seen some of the persons interested in this bequest. It can take effect only after the death of Nanjappa. I have suggested to these persons to see if the donor who is childless may not be induced to make the money available earlier. These ~~[illegible]~~ endowment will be under the control of the Nanjangud Education Association Fund. No further action on the part of Govt is required. The I. G. 21 It is not clear what action is prayed for on the part of the Govt. The will of Nanjappa conveys his property to the President for the time being of the Lingayet Education Fund Association, and the taking possession of the property by the Assn. after the demise of the donor is a matter completely in the hands of the Assn. itself. Though the donation ~~itself~~ may be a matter of public importance so far as the Lingayets are concerned, unless the Govt. are the Trustees of the fund they cannot interfere in the matter. [If the Association should come forward with any money to be deposited in the Govt. Treasury and demand the special rate of interest allowed for charitable endowments that question ~~would be~~ will be considered by Govt.]

Sir,

Adverting to your Office memorandum Nos: 2758 and 2992/Edn: 50-15 Dated the 20th and 28th October 1916, forwarding for report the petitions of Papamma, wife of late Shroff Nanjappa alias Shamanna praying that the properties bequeathed by her husband to the Lingayat Education Fund Association might be taken under Government management as the President of the said Association was removing the moveable properties without preparing a list of them, I have the honor to state that on receipt of a requisition on 9th June 1916, from the Secretary of the Association asking for help to safe guard the properties of the deceased which were bequeathed to the Association by him, the Amildar of Bangalore Taluk was directed to be present at the spot and render necessary assistance in the matter, and the District Superintendent of Police was also informed of the same.

2 Accordingly, the amildar visited the house and shop of the deceased Nanjappa in the company of the Association members and reported in his No. 1627 dated 13th June 16 that cash of Rs 6750/- found in the house and shop were sent to the Mysore Bank and that the other valuables of the donor were secured in an iron safe in the shop under sealed lock, one key of which was left with the petitioner, and the other key forwarded to the President of the Association Dewan Bahadur K. P. Puttanna Chetty.

3 Subsequently on 13th September 1916, the petitioner appeared before me with a petition containing allegations similar to those mentioned in the petitions under report. I, thereupon, perused the copy of the will presented by her with the petition, and as it invested the President of the Association with full powers for its execution and did not provide for any interference on the part of Government Officers, I explained the circumstances to her and told her at the same time that I shall have a talk with the President of the Association and see if I could bring about an amicable understanding between them.

4. The President of the Association to whom I mentioned the fact of the application presented by the petitioner having readily consented to agree to any amicable settlement that might be arranged, I discussed the matter again in my Office on the 20th September 1916 with the petitioner and the Secretary of the Association (Mr. J.S. Siddappa) Mr: Yejman Basappa another leading member of the Association being also present at the time.

5. After a careful consideration of the papers produced by the parties, I advised the Secretary to let the petitioner have the personal jewels claimed by her which he agreed to do under certain conditions, and I also advised both the parties to have the safe opened, and its contents removed to a safe place for custody after making an inventory of them, and offered to request the Amildar to be present at and superintendent the examination of the safe and its contents. Both parties were apparently satisfied with the arrangement and went away agreeing to ~~do~~ adopt the course suggested by me, but

Subsequently

Subsequently it was reported by the Amildar that when he went to the Shop and asked the parties to have the Safe opened the petitioner refused to open the Shop under the pretext that her male relations were then absent from the place.

6. From the above fact it will be seen that though the matter was one which did not call for interference by the Officers of Government, yet in the public interest and with a view to avoid trouble between the parties, every attempt was made to settle the matter in a friendly way between them but that the attempts proved fruitless owing apparently to the ill-advised and obstructive attitude of the petitioner herself.

7. The petitioner has, in the petition under report, asked that the properties left by her husband may be taken possession of and managed by Government, instead of being left in the hands of the Lingayet Education Fund Association. In the first place, the will of the deceased testator does not make any provision for Government taking over the management of the properties. Even in the absence of such provisions,

Some

Some interference on the part of Government would have been justified if there were any reason to suspect the bona fides and work of the Association. But there are absolutely no grounds whatever to believe that the Association of which Dewan Bahadur K. P. Puttanna Chetty is the President and which counts a number of respectable gentlemen among its members, would be unfair to the petitioner in any way or would deal improperly with the properties.

8. In the circumstances, I am of opinion that there are no grounds whatever for the Government to interfere in the matter and that the petitioner should be left to seek her remedies, if any, in a competent Court of law.

9. The 2 petitions under report are herewith submitted.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant.
